

Smart Lock Gateway G2

Pairing with Amazon Alexa

Enter the Amazon Alexa interface and navigate to "more", then "skills and games"

Search and find the "TTLock" API

← тт∟оск ๙	000
TTLock Rated: Guidance Suggested
ENABLE TO USE
Account linking required
Hardware Requirements: 1 Gateway- sold separately 2. Echo/Dot Get Started: See More
Start By Saying English (US) 🗸
"Alexa, lock the door lock."
"Alexa, lock my door lock."
"Alexa, lock door lock"
Home Communicate Play Devices More

Enable to use the "TTLock" API

> Profile Nickname Location Please enter your username 8 E-Mail account Please enter your password 6 TTlock Account TTlock Password After authorizing, TTLock will be able to manage your devices Change password > Me Home 88 III O <

Log in with TTLock credentials found in the DatoHome app (Me --> Personal Settings --> TTLock Account & Password)

After successfully linking TTLock with Amazon Alexa, the device will automatically request to discover devices. Press "Discover Devices"

Go to the Amazon Alexa interface: Devices --> Locks, choose the nearby lock. Give it a fitting name.

Enable "unlock by voice" to access voice control. Choose your voice code. This will prompt the Amazon Alexa login interface. Log in with your Amazon credentials.

÷	SETTING	S	Û
bedrooi Edit Name	m door
ABOUT
Unlock by ap Unlock this si Learn more	p mart lock using yc	our Alexa app.
Unlock by voi Unlock this sr this feature, y confirmation Learn more	ice mart lock by voice you must provide code.	. To use a voice
Change Voice	Code
Connected Sciener	Via
Description Smart Lock by S	Sciener
Type ^{Lock} Enabled
-	9 D	Û	=

You are now ready to use your Amazon Alexa with your DatoHome smart lock!

Trouble Shooting

- Make sure gateway is blinking red & blue before pairing it with smartphone
- Log in to the TTLock API with the credentials found in your DatoHome app! (go to "Me" -> "Personal Settings" -> 'TTLock Account' and 'TTLock Password')